Daily Resistance – call for distributors

Daily-Resistance-Team

Daily Resistance is looking for distributors. Daily Resistance is a periodical newspaper on actual paper written by activists with and without migration experience aimed to reach people in refugee camps (https://dailyresistance.oplatz.net). Articles in different languages inform on the movements of resistance in Germany to empower them for their everyday resistance against the system. Refugee camps in Germany are often located in remote areas. People are far away from their communities, political self-organizations and support structures. The newspaper wants to break this isolation, giving people hope and strength to fight back and giving them the option to connect with refugee and migrants' self-organisations.

As we are only a small group, we can't possibly travel to all the Lagers to distribute the newspaper, so we need your help: Are you a researcher with access to Lagers? Do you have a lot of contact with people in the asylum process? Could you help Daily Resistance reach the people it was written for?

If you can help us distribute the newspaper, please send us an email: dailyresistance@oplatz.net

In the email please write:
1. Your postal address
2. How many copies of the newspaper you would like to receive

If you're in Berlin, you can always pick up the latest issues at Café Karanfil, Mahlower Straße 7 (U8 Boddinstr.)

If you can't help us distribute, you can always help us keep Daily Resistance free for refugees and people in lagers. One copy of the newspaper costs 30 cents for us. If you'd like to support us financially, our account is:
