transversal audio season

March - July 2023

The transversal audio season presents livestreams, book presentations, interviews, discussions, lecture performances, sound pieces and features. At the centre of this spring's audio season is a Tribute to Toni Negri: "The Irrepressible Lightness and Joy of Being Communist" celebrates the 90th birthday of one of the most influential thinkers of the 20th and 21st century with a translocal series of lectures and a four-part interview with Toni Negri, conducted by Gerald Raunig. Beyond this, the season includes audios created in connection with eipcp projects and transversal books, starting with the most recent releases, The Household as Laboratory by Verónica Gago and Luci Cavallero, and Raúl Sanchez Cedillo's This War Does Not End in Ukraine.

Livestreams and new episodes will be published on Wednesdays at 18:00 CET. Please check the program here at https://transversal.at/audio/transversal-audio-season-spring23 for possible short-term changes.
Default language: English, with multilingual interventions.
